Researchers Discover the Real Culprit Behind Many Age-Related Health Problems ...

And The Ancient Remedy
Proven to Help YOU
Beat Them Safely
and Naturally!

Deep in the jungles and villages of Southeast Asia and India, people have depended on certain herbs for thousands of years for their uses in cooking and medicine.

The Ayurvedic tradition of medicine they are based on, is the art of healthy living that enables you to create harmony in daily life by applying self-knowledge and self-care. The word, Ayurveda, is from the ancient Indian language, Sanskrit, and literally means "Knowledge of Life".

These safe, time-tested remedies have been used for thousands of years. These little-known herbs and detailed recipes have been handed down from mother to daughter for generations. And these people remain among the most healthy on earth.

But, it wasn't until a recent, breakthrough discovery revealed the surprising source of most health problems, that the incredible benefits of these ancient potions were fully appreciated by main-stream medicine.

Now, following detailed scientific scrutiny and more than 200 studies, researchers have documented the amazing ability of these Ayurvedic herbal remedies to improve a wide variety of health problems.

Yet, despite the studies and the proof, chances are your doctor will never tell you about these amazing remedies – partly because they are not prescription drugs, and partly because he has never heard of them himself.

If you find yourself suffering more and more from aches, pains, and various other health problems as you get older, this report ... and the risk-free trial ... can change your life!

I'll explain more about your risk-free supply later. But first, to appreciate how Bio Clear[™] can work wonders in your body, you need to understand ...

The real problem is inflammation.

Everyone experiences inflammation at one time or another. A common example is the pain and redness you experience when you stub your toe or cut your finger.

As you would expect, the more serious the disease or injury, the more severe the inflammation.

But the fact is, the inflammation that you see and feel around an injury is only the tip of the iceberg.

Even minor inflammations, such as a pimple or tendonitis, can cause a wide-spread inflammatory response deep inside your whole body.

For example, when you stub your toe, your whole body becomes inflamed, not just the individual cells that are damaged. And your whole body becomes involved in trying to heal you.

It sends fresh blood, antibodies, and other vital cells to heal the wound and protect the area from future trouble.

Fighting these inflammatory attacks in several areas puts quite a strain on your body. Multiple inflammations can virtually wipe out your body's natural healing resources.

When your body is fatigued from fighting various inflammations throughout your body, even something as minor as your stubbed toe may never heal properly.

Or worse, your immune system will be weakened and leave you vulnerable to any number of health problems.

The hidden inflammation that is making you suffer.

It's obvious how bumps, cuts and bruises can cause inflammation. But, inflammation from these common, occasional injuries does not usually give your immune system much trouble.

The real problem is that many substances and situations cause your body to be irritated and inflamed internally – hidden deep inside where you can't see it or feel it, or treat it.

Breakthrough research has determined that it's this "hidden inflammation" that is responsible for many of the health problems you experience.

That's why, even if you feel otherwise well, all it takes is a small degree of internal inflammation to secretly wreak havoc in your body.

Inflammation is linked to many illness.

Scientists have discovered an enzyme called CRP that is a very accurate indicator of inflammation within your body.

Studies now prove that if you have a higher level of CRP –signalling high internal inflammation -- you are many times more likely to suffer with health problems than if your body is fighting off the inflammation and your CRP levels are low.

These studies show that uncontrolled inflammation throughout your body can contribute to a wide range of problems from cardiovascular disease and arthritis to dermatitis and even premenstrual syndrome (PMS).

In fact, a growing consensus among scientists is that chronic, whole body inflammation is at least a partial cause of many disorders including:

- atherosclerosis,
- coronary heart disease
- bowel diseases
- liver diseases
- Alzheimer's disease
- multiple sclerosis
- Parkinson's
- cataracts
- arthritis
- osteoporosis
- macular degeneration
- prostate diseases, and
- many cancers

Inflammation proven to trigger heart attacks, diabetes, Alzheimer's and more.

Writing in a recent issue of The New England Journal of Medicine, Attilio Maseri, M.D., of the Catholic University of the Sacred Heart, Rome, reported that "convincing evidence" has been uncovered that inflammation is strongly linked to heart attacks and stroke.

In the same issue of the Journal, a team of scientists from the Harvard Medical School, who have been involved with the landmark Physicians' Health Study, verified that inflammation leads to heart disease and stroke.

Now, there is increasing evidence that type 2 diabetes, which is strongly linked to heart disease, may also be related to inflammation.

And another study published in the Annals of Neurology revealed that inflammation may also be linked to Alzheimer's and other dementing diseases.

You can't escape from

Even if you are healthy and live a healthy lifestyle, you can't escape the causes of inflammation. Your body is exposed to dozens of substances that cause inflammation, all day—every day.

The growing list of factors that can trigger inflammation includes:

- environmental toxins
- cigarette smoke
- allergic reactions
- parasitic and microbiological infections
- drugs
- bacterial or viral infections
- arthritis
- asthma, and
- autoimmune diseases

Your own body is part of the problem.

Surprisingly, another significant cause of hidden inflammation is found right inside your own body.

From the day you are born, your body converts food and oxygen into energy. A natural by-product of this process happens to be the creation of rogue cells called free-radicals.

These free-radicals have only one mission: to steal electrons from all the healthy cells in your body in a process called oxidation.

When free-radicals steal electrons, it's like they are taking a giant bite out of your healthy cells.

Needless to say, this kind of "cellular bite" can kill healthy cells and cause as much inflammation inside your body as a bite on your hand would on the outside.

But, unlike a localized bite on your hand, this free-radical bite inflames millions of cells throughout your whole body.

To make matters worse, your body's own immune system can also trigger massive free-radical inflammation while trying to fight various cellular invaders.

Natural inflammation fighters virtually disappear by age 25.

For the first two to three decades of your life, you are protected from oxidation and inflammation by natural cells that stop the oxidation process. These inflammation-fighters are called "antioxidants".

The presence of natural antioxidants explains why most people under age 30 do not experience the many health problems that tend to start affecting us as we get older.

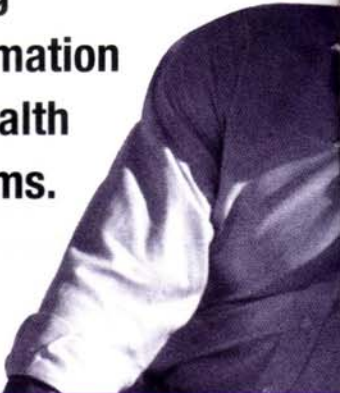

But, around your mid twenties, your body virtually stops producing natural antioxidants.

This gives free radicals unlimited access to your cells. Your health begins to wane because inflammation is damaging and killing too many healthy cells.

It is no wonder that we look and feel worse as we age. Many of the cells you need for healthy, youthful living are damaged or destroyed by free-radical inflammation.

The secret to your best health, then, is to find a way to eliminate, or better yet prevent, inflammation.

Ancient Ayurvedic remedies hold the key to beating inflammation and health problems.

hidden inflammation.

Ayurveda is an Asian medical system which began in the sixth century BC and still thrives today. It is the oldest and most holistic, or comprehensive, medical system ever known.

Ayurveda is based on the idea that to restore health we must understand the exact quality, nature and structure of disease, disorder, or imbalance.

Ancient Indian civilizations used Ayurveda to select herbs, nuts, spices and other foods as remedies for health problems.

Ayurvedic medicine has long prescribed specific herbs to improve health and treat a variety of problems. The most potent of these include curcumin, boswellia, ashwagandha and guggulipid.

Now, modern research verifies the effectiveness of these ancient remedies in fighting pain, combatting free-radicals and reducing inflammation.

Double-power “Bioprotectant” helps prevent and relieve your pain and inflammation.

The root of the turmeric plant has been a mainstay in Indian culture for centuries. It is particularly known for adding the unique color and flavor to curry dishes.

Turmeric root is also one of the most widely used herbals in Ayurvedic medicine. Scientists now know why.

Nearly 200 scientific studies show that curcumin, an extract from turmeric, has incredible anti-oxidant and anti-inflammatory power.

In tests, curcumin's antioxidant power has outperformed every other notable antioxidant, including pine bark extract, grape-seed extract, vitamin E, eugenol, capsaicin and BHT.

Researchers Vladimir Badmaev, Ph.D., M.D., and Muhammed Majeed, Ph.D., developed a superior form of curcumin called Curcumin C3 Complex® that improves your health in two important ways.

First, Curcumin C3 Complex® destroys free-radicals and fights problem-causing inflammation.

Second, it helps prevent health problems by preventing free-radicals from forming in the first place.

This double power makes Curcumin C3 Complex® more powerful and beneficial than any ordinary antioxidant. In fact, Curcumin C3 Complex® is a totally new form of nutrient called a “bioprotectant”.

Curcumin C3 Complex® is the only bioprotectant proven to fight free radical formation in food and body tissues as well as scavenge and neutralize existing free radicals.

This signifies that Curcumin C3 Complex® not only helps resolve your health problems, it helps prevent them.

Ancient remedy for joint pain and inflammation now even better.

Painful joints have been plaguing men and women since the dawn of civilization itself.

Throughout the centuries, an ancient Ayurvedic remedy made from the sap of the boswellia tree has been used to bring relief. Boswellia is widely known for its anti-inflammatory effects.

However, if you've ever tried using ordinary boswellia, you know results are often erratic. New discoveries reveal why.

Renowned nutraceutical manufacturer, Sabinsa Corporation, along with investigators from prestigious Rutgers University, have discovered that only certain chemicals in the extract, called boswellic acids, have the powerful anti-inflammatory properties we need. And these acids do not naturally appear consistently in typical boswellia extracts.

Now, these researchers have developed a new technique for producing a standardized extract of the pure, powerful boswellic acids.

The result is an exclusive proprietary healing extract called Boswellin®.

Medical studies support the ability of Boswellin® to consistently fight inflammation and relieve pain. In fact, its anti-inflammatory action has been compared to that of a “super” aspirin and other NSAIDs, but without any of the typical stomach irritation.

Natural “adaptogen” enhances your mental and physical performance.

Ashwagandha is a branched, erect shrub native to India and Africa. It has long been used by Ayurvedic doctors to cure a wide variety of problems.

Research shows that ashwagandha effectively enhances both mental and physical performance and decreases the effects of stress and fatigue. It is known as an “adaptogen” because it helps your body prevent health problems by adapting to whatever it encounters.

Ashwagandha strengthens your natural immune system and builds up your body’s ability to resist physical, chemical and biological intruders.

Natural healer proven to reduce cholesterol and eliminate fat.

More than 2,000 years ago, in 1000 BC, practitioners of Ayurvedic medicine met to discuss the heart problems that were killing their people.

These well-documented medical treatises resulted in the prescription of an amber-like resin from the bark of the commiphora mukul tree, called guggulipid.

Today, more than two dozen clinical trials support guggulipid’s incredible ability to lower cholesterol.

Just as importantly to a healthy lifestyle, guggulipid resets your body’s fat thermostat to make excess stored fat melt away.

Patented, all-natural Bioperine® ensures you get maximum benefit from every nutrient.

Studies have shown that most nutritional products still sit undigested in your digestive tract 17 hours after taking them. This means they aren’t doing you any good at all. No matter how much you pay for nutrients, they won’t help you if your body can’t absorb and use them.

In ancient times, royal physicians discovered that whenever people ate meals strongly seasoned with black pepper, they experienced significantly fewer digestive problems.

In order to determine the connection between pepper and digestion, researchers at Sabinsa Corporation discovered that a patented, 95% purified extract of an important alkaloid from black pepper, called Bioperine® helps your body extract every bit of nutrition from whatever you eat.

Numerous scientific experiments have proven that when people take Bioperine®, blood levels of virtually every nutrient tested are significantly increased.

This means you can be healthier by getting the maximum nutrition from the foods you eat. Plus, you can save money by getting more benefit from smaller doses of nutritional supplements.

Natural Bioperine® ensures that all the food and nutrients you ingest are more readily absorbed and used by your body to keep you healthy.

Safe and natural ... with no side effects

Unlike prescription drugs your doctor may prescribe to fight pain and inflammation, all of these natural Ayurvedic herbs are safe. Remember, they have been used and proven for thousands of years. And they appear on the FDA’s list of GRAS (Generally recognized as safe) products.

This means you can use them with complete safety and peace of mind.

You never need to worry about the potentially dangerous side effects of drugs.

Only Bio Clear™ combines these natural Ayurvedic nutrients for your maximum health!

But, Bio Clear™ has more than centuries of proven use going for it. Here are just a few of the clinical studies that support the ingredients in Bio Clear™ to:

End pain and problem-causing inflammation.

■ A double-blind study of arthritis patients in India, showed those given a combination of curcumin, ashwagandha and boswellia reported significantly less pain and disability with no side effects.

■ A recent study at the prestigious Sloan-Kettering Cancer Research Center in New York showed that curcumin was more safe and precise than aspirin in stopping inflammation by shutting down the COX2 enzyme responsible for pain and inflammation. But curcumin caused none of aspirin's typical gastrointestinal irritation.

■ In vitro experiments show boswellic acids prevent inflammation and well-known inflammatory responses.

■ Numerous studies show that curcumin is as effective at controlling inflammation as the powerful drugs cortisone or phenylbutazone in improving morning stiffness, walking time and joint swelling. But, unlike the drugs, curcumin achieved these results without any side effects.

Increase your energy, stamina, and immune system.

■ In a clinical study of HIV patients, curcumin was found to significantly increase certain immune cells.

■ A double-blind clinical study investigating the effects of ashwagandha on aging showed that regular use of ashwagandha significantly slowed down the process of aging. Gray hair was minimized, loss of calcium was reduced, and sexual desire and performance were enhanced.

■ Researchers at Harvard Medical School published a study that showed curcumin strengthens the immune system by preventing certain viruses from replicating.

■ In several double-blind, crossover tests, boswellic acids resulted in a significant decrease in severity of pain and morning stiffness and improved mobility.

Prevent heart and circulation problems

■ In a recent study in India, 500 mg of standardized curcumin extract lowered cholesterol by an average of 29% in seven days.

■ An animal study by researchers Werbach and Murray found that curcumin prevents the uptake of cholesterol and increases the breakdown of cholesterol.

■ The Central Drug Institute in Lucknow, India tested gugulipid on patients with high cholesterol and a history of heart disease. After 12 weeks, 78% of the participants showed significantly lowered cholesterol.

■ Researchers at Odense University in Denmark published a report that curcumin prevents heart-attack-causing blood clots.

Keep your mind sharp and fight Alzheimer's.

■ Researchers from UCLA have discovered that curcumin may help slow down the progression of Alzheimer's. Their studies show that curcumin reduced the number of brain plaques believed responsible for Alzheimer's by 50%. In addition, it appears to reduce Alzheimer's-related inflammation in the brain tissue.

And much more!
