Just as This Overbusy, High-Achieving Woman Does! Here's How You Can Take Advantage of Her Big Secret...

Rosa Always Had
Migraine Headaches,
Excessive Tiredness,
and Allergies. Now,
Despite What Doctors
Said, She's Not Tired and There are NO Headaches or Allergies!

She works in a busy Miami office and has a lot of stress. She'd come home tired from her job as a financial administrator needing a nap or a long sleep. "Once I got home, I was tired," she said, "I needed at least 8 hours sleep. And I used to sneeze all the time from my allergies. I was always very nervous. I have had migraine headaches since before I become a mother." But Rosa Llano feels much better now. "Since I started the Immuvit," she said, "it's a whole new life with good energy."

Published reports say
ginseng in IMMUVIT makes you look, feel and perform much better!

Doctors Didn't Help Her

After Rosa had an operation, the doctors said Immuvit would waste her money. But they didn't have any solutions. Finally, she said "I had to do something, so I took Immuvit. I don't have any more migraines, no colds in quite a while, and after only 6 hours sleep, I wake up with more energy than before."

Less Nervousness, More Calm

Immuvit helped her nerves too. "I feel a lot better. I am not so nervous. I am more alert, not so tired, and I am happy I have my Immuvit."

Daughter Roxana and her uncle Jose have much more daily energy with Immuvit. She stopped taking a lot of vitamins and has "a better feeling of well-being." He says Immuvit keeps him "awake on long business drives." His high blood pressure is gone and he has more strength than before.

Bill Has Lots of New Tennis Energy Since Immuvit Ended His Fatigue...

"Within the first 30 days of taking Immuvit, I began to feel less tired and more energetic. The next 30 days brought continued vitality. I was convinced Immuvit had changed my life. But I stopped taking it for a week to see what would happen. Right away I felt very fatigued like I used to. So I called the 800 number and reordered immediately. You can tell others that this 80 years young man is a runner-up tennis champion thanks to the energy I get from your Immuvit."

Bill Runnstrom, corporate executive, Malmö, Sweden

Protect Your Body's Cells

Every cell in your body makes CoEnzyme Q10, an antioxidant that is the key to creating energy. As we age, our bodies do not produce as much of this nutrient that we need. We get tired, cranky, forgetful, frazzled, sleepy.

Cells are also damaged by free radicals, tiny molecules induced by stress, pollution, and other adverse conditions, like ailments or accidents. A generous supply of CoEnzyme Q10 in IMMUVIT helps you defeat cell damage and be revitalized. IMMUVIT helps.

Many people have improved their lives with IMMUVIT...and
You can too!

Universities, Researchers, Botanists, and Herbologists Give Ginsengs Great Applause for Helping You Feel Better...

The Internet and publishers around the world are now releasing many reports on the benefits of ginseng for a wide variety of ailments, including:

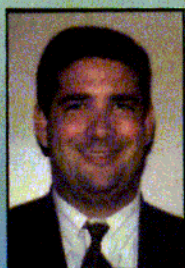

- ★ Increases blood circulation
- ★ Calms nerves
- ★ Builds physical strength
- ★ Defeats tiredness syndrome
- ★ Cleans blood
- ★ Prevents cellular cancer
- ★ Regulates menstruation
- ★ Repairs hemorrhoids
- ★ Helps cell production
- ★ Purifies, Strengthens, and Regulates Most Body Functions
- ★ Normalizes insulin/sugar
- ★ Balances hormones
- ★ Tightens loose skin
- ★ Helps release many toxins
- ★ Reduces acne
- ★ Controls blood pressure
- ★ Prevents most colds/flu
- ★ Ends constipation
- ★ Overcomes impotence

Ginseng is an adaptogen, an all-around resistance booster that strengthens the entire body's defense mechanism. An adaptogen is beneficial in beating specific diseases and also helps prevent illness in healthy individuals. It is non-toxic, less costly than most drugs, and is not habit-forming.

IMMUVIT comes to you from the world-famous inventor of Ginsana® and many other Ginseng Products who takes his own formula and is in the best of health!...

Ginseng has a 5,000-year history of helping ancient Oriental and Russian people to better health, with greater vigor and clearer minds. In Switzerland, modern research by Dr. Karl H. Rueckert expanded the power and efficiency of ginseng. First, he invented the best-selling Ginsana® available in many stores. And recently, he startled the nutraceutical world by blending two ginsengs with the superior antioxidant CoEnzyme Q10 and a virtual treasure chest of vitamins and minerals. Combined, they give your body healthier cells and results you can feel!

Military Man Gets Needed Vitamins, and 'It Makes Me Feel Good'...

"Immuvit is a good multivitamin/mineral supplement. It makes me feel good when I start my day off in the morning. The list of vitamins in each softgel is awesome. This vitamin supplement gives me all the needed vitamins to keep me healthy. I still exercise and watch what I eat, but the softgel makes sure I get the extra vitamins that I need."

You can buy a variety of ginseng at almost any food or drug store, but not with the generous amount of CoEnzyme Q-10 and 23 valuable vitamins and minerals. The Q-10 is expensive to buy.

That's why most ginseng preparations don't include it. We do because it helps your body take advantage of the power in the two high-quality Korean and Siberian ginsengs included in Immuvit.

Wait 'til you try it. It works!

Janette Has Less Stress, a Clear Mind, and Her Dad Has No More Colds...

"Your Immuvit is wonderful. I put myself and my father on them a year ago and we never will be without them again.

We both feel so much better on them than on any other product we have both tried. I am 53 and my father is 87. I feel less stress, clearer thinking, and just feel good. Every year my father would get the flu at least twice a year, even with yearly flu shots, and he'd get 3 - 4 really bad colds a year. Since he has been on Immuvit, he has had no colds or flu. You really have a great product." Janette Bonderud, Parker, AZ
